A woman is sitting on a light-colored carpeted floor. She is wearing black high-heeled sandals. On her back, she is holding a large, rectangular painting of a woman in a blue bikini. The painting is positioned so that it covers her torso and upper legs, making her appear to be the subject of the artwork. The word "Oddity" is written in a white, serif font across the middle of the image, overlapping the painting and the woman's legs. The background shows a corner of a room with a window and a door.
