ESSENTIAL INSPIRATION FOR CREATIVE MINDS

USP INSPIRE:
GOTHIC CHRISTMAS

While the festive period continues to be full of fun, glitter and clashing brights, a darker mood is also emerging, inspired by gothic Victoriana and classic horror.

Adding a surreal touch to dining and tablescapes, Gohar World launched their first holiday shop in NYC, selling table linens and whimsical curios. Edénique Floral Design have also embraced a similar aesthetic, creating table decorations and candelabra covered in huge satin bows, dried fruit and pearls.

In London, the Satanic Flea Market offered an alternative to the usual Christmas fairs this year, selling occult trinkets, tarot cards and taxidermy.

Next Christmas, Robert Egger's highly awaited film, Nosferatu, will be released. The gothic horror will star Lily-Rose Depp and Emma Corrin among others, telling the story of a haunted young woman and the vampire that is infatuated with her.
